

DEDICATION

This publication reflects an important partnership that is developing among land trusts, watershed associations, state fish and wildlife agencies and hopefully, local city and county officials, in an effort to join forces and leverage funds to save forests, farms, riparian buffers and open spaces that will forever enrich our communities, save their unique southern character and enhance their long term economic vitality.

We dedicate this report to all of you, who work so tirelessly to save our land and water heritage

Southeast Watershed Forum, Inc.
One Vantage Way, Suite D-105
Nashville, TN 37228
615-627-1310

www.southeastwaterforum.org

FROM OPEN SPACES TO WILD PLACES

The Economic Value of Habitat Protection to Your Community

A Publication of the Southeast Watershed Forum

SOUTHEAST WATERSHED FORUM

Board of Directors

Phil Armor
Greater Nashville Regional Council (TN)

Noreen Clough, Vice Chair
BASS/ESPN Outdoors (FL)

Don Freeman
Cape Fear River Assembly (NC)

Allison Newell Jenkins, Treasurer
Alabama Clean Water Partnership

Neal Kilgore
Virginia Outdoors Foundation

Ross King, Chair
Assoc. County Commissioners of GA

Richard Ludington, Secretary
The Conservation Fund (NC)

Judith Petersen
Kentucky Waterways Alliance

Kurt Spitzer
Florida Stormwater Association

Robert Wayland
Vice Chair, Former Director, EPA Office
of Wetlands, Oceans & Watersheds

The Southeast Watershed Forum is a nonprofit organization dedicated to enhancing local watershed initiatives through education, training and regional dialogue.

Funding for this publication was provided by:
Merck Family Fund
Tennessee Valley Authority
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency
U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service
World Wildlife Fund

From Open Spaces to Wild Places:
The economic Value of habitat Protection to
Your Community

Written by: Rebecca Burks
Published by: Southeast Watershed Forum, Inc.
in cooperation with the Southeast Aquatic Resources Partnership

For additional copies:
Southeast Watershed Forum, Inc.
One Vantage Way, Suite D-105
Nashville, TN 37228
615-627-1310
www.southeastwaterforum.org

Printed on recycled, chlorine free paper.
Copyright © 2006 Southeast Watershed Forum, Inc.